

Get Current with MiVoice Connect Support

Keep your business communications running smoothly

MiVoice Connect is the Unified Communications platform that you have come to rely on. The continuous release of new applications, software and compatible hardware has ensured and improved MiVoice Connect's functionality, security and integration in new environments.

Keep your business running “worry-free” with MiVoice Connect Partner or Enterprise Support.

And if your current Support contract has expired, take advantage of one of our promotions (while available):

Get Current to Protect Your Business

Reenlistment fees are waived for customers without active Support for more than one year

MiVoice Connect 14.2 Promotion

Reenlistment fees waived for customers on Release 14.2 or earlier without active Support for more than one year
